Vicar Mimic

These cards are themed around acting out clues as in charades. No using proper names when acting or speaking...

Vicar Mimic

Father

The word Pope means father. A child in ancient Greece would use this affectionate term for the father of the family. The Pope is the head of the spiritual family of the Church.

Vicar Mimic

St. Francis of Assisi

Pope Francis chose his papal name after this great saint of Assisi due to his renown for poverty, simplicity, joy and peace.

Vicar Mimic

Fisherman

Peter, the first Pope, left this profession and family business for a greater one: to be a fisher of men.

Vicar Mimic

Cook

The pope used to cook his own meals when he was archbishop of Buenos Aires.

Vicar Mimic

Swiss Guard

These soldiers from Switzerland have guarded and defended the Pope in the Vatican for centuries, and they wear colorful Renaissance period uniforms.

Vicar Mimic

Roman Statue

If you go to Rome one day to see the Pope, you'll see many of these in Churches, outside Churches, on bridges and government buildings.

Vicar Mimic

St. Peter

The apostle Christ chose to be the first Pope.

Vicar Mimic

Washing the Feet

Pope Francis is recognized for the gesture of washing the feet of AIDS victims.

Vicar Mimic

Five Children

Pope Francis is the oldest of five children in his family.

Vicar Mimic

Volkswagon

Pope Francis has chosen to use a regular volkswagon as his car instead of a Mercedes with a motorcade.
