

WHY DO I CARE WHAT PEOPLE THINK OF ME?

ANSWER IN YOUR OWN WORDS:

#321 CAN A CHRISTIAN BE A RADICAL INDIVIDUALIST? No, a Christian can never be a radical individualist, because man is by nature designed for fellowship. Every person has a mother and a father; he receives help from others and is obliged to help others and to develop his talents for the benefit of all. Love is the central commandment for all Christians; through it we profoundly belong together and are fundamentally dependent on one another. "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Mt 22:39).

#347 WHY IS "NOT PRACTICING WHAT YOU PREACH" SUCH A SERIOUS DEFICIENCY IN A CHRISTIAN? Agreement between one's life and one's witness is the first requirement for proclaiming the Gospel. Not practicing what you profess is therefore hypocrisy, a betrayal of the Christian duty to be "salt of the earth" and "light of the world".

SAINTS & INSPIRATIONAL STORIES

BLESSED CHIARA BANDANO

Chiara cared more about being a good example for her friends than if her friends would make fun of her for her faith. Chiara shows us how the first step to being happy and becoming a saint is being true to who you are and living before God alone. She was proud of her friendship with Jesus and it is what made her unique and an example.

FR CLEMENT STAUB

He dedicated his life to help people get closer to God even though along the way people made fun of him. He cared about the people around him but was not too concerned with or their opinion of him.
