

WHY IS IT WRONG TO SAY YOU ARE CATHOLIC & ACT ANOTHER WAY?

#454 HOW STRONGLY OBLIGATORY IS THE TRUTH OF THE FAITH? Every Christian must give testimony to the truth and thereby follow after Christ, who before Pilate said, "For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth" (Jn 18:37). This can even mean that a Christian lays down his life out of fidelity to the truth and love for God and mankind. This ultimate form of commitment to the truth is called martyrdom.

SAINTS & INSPIRATIONAL STORIES

BLESSED ENRICO SAIZ

Fr Enrico Saiz shows us with his actions what it means to say you are Christian and follow Jesus' example to lay down your life for your friends. He sacrificed himself to save his students and was unjustly killed for being a priest. He is like many other martyrs that show us what it truly means to be Catholic and sacrifice everything to stay true to your beliefs.

MARIA MAGDALEN BENTIVOGLIO

Maria Magdalen Bentivoglio is one of the nuns who spread the Catholic faith in the US, going from city to city starting schools and convents and working to help the poor and those in need. Her life spoke volumes to what she believed. She knew that to believe meant to change the way she lived and spent her life.
