Why are they doing
adoration?

forgiveness

Jesus is waiting there with mercy and forgiveness in the blessed sacrament. Never be afraid to come to him.

Why are they doing
adoration?

Grateful to god

When god gives us great blessings or graces we need to turn to him and give thanks. Gratitude is a rare and precious virtue that god deserves.

Why are they doing
adoration?

confused

When we feel a little lost or don't quite know what to do, we can find guidance from Jesus in adoration.

Why are they doing
adoration?

Just to be
with God

Sometimes we don't need a reason, except our desire to be with Him.

Why are they doing
adoration?

Need inspiration

When you go to adoration, you can find inspiration from Jesus to be a better person or get the graces you need to do something that is hard.

Why are they doing
adoration?

To get to know Jesus

Adoration is time to learn about his life and what he was like.

Why are they doing
adoration?

Seeking peace

Jesus gives us a peaceful heart when we are doing what god wants us to be doing. If you are anxious or uneasy, turn to him in adoration.

Why are they doing
adoration?

lonely

Whenever we find ourselves alone, we can always turn to jesus in the Eucharist and know that we have a friend there.

Why are they doing
adoration?

happy

Don't just turn to god when you are down or in need. Go to adoration when you are having a great day to thank him for all he has given you.

Why are they doing
adoration?

tired

Life can be tough sometimes and we feel like things are too much to handle for us. Go to jesus to get refreshed to keep going!

Why are they doing
adoration?

sad

Jesus is there for us in adoration when something goes wrong in life or we lose someone or we simply feel sad. He consoles us with his presence.

Why are they doing
adoration?

strength

Jesus carried his heavy cross up to Calvary and he can inspire us to have the strength to carry our own crosses.
