

Why do we follow the Pope?

ANSWER IN YOUR OWN WORDS:

#141 What is the Pope's responsibility? As successor of St. Peter and head of the bishops, the Pope is the source and guarantor of the Church's unity. He has the supreme pastoral authority and the final authority in doctrinal and disciplinary decisions. He watches over the transmission of the true faith.

#143 Is the Pope really infallible? Yes. But the Pope speaks infallibly only when he makes an authoritative decision in doctrinal questions of faith and morals. The infallibility of the Pope has nothing to do with his moral integrity or his intelligence. What is infallible is actually the Church, for Jesus promised her the Holy Spirit, who keeps her in the truth and leads her ever deeper into it.

#344 Why does the Church also make declarations about ethical questions and about matters of personal conduct? Believing is a path. One learns how to stay on this path, how to act rightly and to lead a good life, only by following the instructions in the Gospel.
