SAINTS & INSPIRATIONAL STORIES

ST. RAFAEL BARON

St Rafael Arnáiz Barón was born into a wealthy family in Burgos, Spain, on April 9, 1911. He was sickly as a child and went to college to study architecture only to leave and enter the Cistercian Monastery of the Strick Observance in 1934. Due to his illness of diabetes, which they did not have treatment for at that time, he was back and forth between home and the monastery for years. He died at the age of 27. Despite his brief life his one desire was to live in order to love: to love Jesus, Mary, the Cross, and his reputation for holiness spread rapidly and his grave at San Isidro became a place of pilgrimage where many miracles were received. He was canonized Oct 11, 2009.

SIR GEORGE WILLIAMS

Sir George Williams was born on a farm in England in 1821. In his youth he considered himself careless and thoughtless, yet eventually became a devout Christian. Due to his concern for a place for young working men to gather for bible studies and prayer meetings, he founded the first YMCA. The idea spread quickly and in 6 years there were over 100 YMCA across Europe and the US.
