

DO I ALWAYS NEED TO BE HONEST?

YOU CAT #452: The 8th Commandment teaches us not to lie. Someone who lies deceives himself and misleads others who have the right to know the truth.

YOU CAT #453: Someone who really follows Jesus brings greater and greater truthfulness into his life. To believe means to become a witness to the truth.

SAINTS & INSPIRATIONAL STORIES

SAINT THOMAS MORE

Thomas More was born in 1478 in England and grew up in a catholic family. He was the Chancellor of England in the time of Henry VIII. He was known to be a very faithful subject to the king and was one of his most sought out advisors and lawyers. He was also an ardent, faithful member of the Catholic Church. When Henry decided to break away from the true Church and start the Church of England, Thomas had to stand up for what he truly believed in. He refused to reject the faith. The King had him killed. Thomas was eventually canonized in 1935.

BRITTANY MCCOMB

In 2006 Brittany was censored when giving her valedictorian speech at her High School graduation. The school district reviewed her speech and told her to not reference the bible verses or Christ which she had in her speech. She attempted to deliver the original version of her remarks in which she shares her personal beliefs about the role that her Christian beliefs played in her success. When school officials found her to be straying from the approved text, they unplugged her microphone, thus ending the address.
